-LEGAL Document: Need to include any legal documents related to traffic ticket (fine of $250 or more), arrest, etc. These documents should include the citation, court papers, and final disposition. Student needs to also write a statement about the incident. Students on probation are not allowed to enter the program until the probation is over. All legal issues require a waiver, so get the paperwork in as soon as possible.

MEDICAL Issues: Some medical conditions can disqualify a student for the Army ROTC program. The following are examples: Asthma since age of 13 could disqualify a student. The current condition of the student and any results from test would have to be evaluated by the Cadet Command Surgeon to determine eligibility. Attention Deficit Disorder and Attention Deficit Hyperactive Disorder can disqualify a student. Students on medication for either of these or other type of medication may require a minimum of 12 months off the medication before they can be considered for the Army ROTC program. Also, students who require special accommodations for these conditions are not eligible. Students with any prior or current medical condition will be required to provide their historical medical records for review.

Direct Deposit Information: This information is required to complete the processing of a student into the ROTC system. Without this information we cannot accept a student into the ROTC program, since we cannot complete the student processing. The Army pays electronically and our students receive Army pay. Minimum data needed is the Bank Routing Number and your Account Number.

FAFSA – Free Application for Federal Student Aid – All students entering this program at Georgia Military College (GMC) are required to complete the FAFSA process. All of the Army ROTC Early Commissioning Program Cadets receive a Performance Grant that covers their Room & Board at GMC. To receive this grant and be allowed to live in on-campus, the FAFSA process has to be completed. You can talk the GMC's Financial Aid Office and/or go to www.fafsa.ed.gov.

All students must apply to attend Georgia Military College through the Admissions Office.
